Charitable Giving Guide

Stanislaus
Community Foundation

Arts & Culture

Carnegie Arts Center

(Est. 2011)

carnegieartsturlock.org

Mission: To bring diverse community and regional audiences together to experience and celebrate art in all its forms.

▶ WHAT'S NEEDED:
General Operating Support

Gallo Center for the Arts

(Est. 2007)

galloarts.org

TOTAL OPERATING BUDGET:
$10,000,000

Mission: To enrich the quality of life in the Central Valley by providing an inspirational civic gathering place where regional, national and international cultural activities illuminate, educate and entertain.

Fundable Opportunity: Seeking funding support for the Yes Company education program. Through a new partnership with the Stanislaus County Office of Education, the Gallo Center for the Arts will produce Yes Company, a nine-week summer program that brings youth, grades 7-12, together to gain a sense of community through trust, acceptance and celebration of their differences as they work toward a common goal. This program is an opportunity for youth to have a pre-professional theater experience.

$25,000 Funding Goal

LightBox Theatre Company

(Est. 2015)

lightboxforyouth.org

TOTAL OPERATING BUDGET:
$15,000-$20,000

Mission: To bring quality, professional live drama to the youth in and around Turlock.

Fundable Opportunity: Seeking funding support to hire a full-time educational director to connect with schools and provide theater-educational services to students who may never have the opportunity to learn theater in the future.

$65,000 Funding Goal

Modesto Sound

(Est. 2005)

modestosound.com

TOTAL OPERATING BUDGET:
$75,000

Mission:

To empower youth with real-world job skills to create music and artistic media.

Fundable Opportunity:

Seeking funding to support The Job Circle, an audio-production workshop serving Modesto-area teens and young adults. The program empowers students to learn music technology skills, including music recording and live-sound mixing, and encourages creativity, teamwork, communication, leadership, mentoring and confidence building. Workshops meet twice a week for eight weeks.

▶ WHAT'S NEEDED:
$18,000 Funding Goal

Modesto Symphony Orchestra Association

(Est. 1931)

modestosymphony.org

TOTAL OPERATING BUDGET:
$1,956,313

Mission:

To produce and present music of the highest artistic caliber and foster lifelong music education and appreciation.

Fundable Opportunity:

Seeking funding to support music-education initiatives, including the youth orchestra, youth chorus and Link Up school program. The youth orchestra performs three annual concerts and rehearses weekly, improving students' musicianship, as well as soft skills such as self discipline, teamwork, punctuality and practice; the youth chorus reaches students whose voice is their instrument, many of whom cannot afford a musical instrument or lessons. Link Up has impacted over 15,000 students since its inception and benefits children who have never experienced symphonic music in a concert hall.

▶ WHAT'S NEEDED:

The State Theatre of Modesto, Inc.

(Est. 1934)

thestate.org

TOTAL OPERATING BUDGET:
$610,000

Mission:

To enrich our community by offering exceptional cultural, educational, film and performance-based experiences.

Fundable Opportunity:

Seeking funding support to expand its service to the community through the addition of a 35-50 seat auxiliary theater space directly adjacent to the existing theater. Referred to as "State Theatre Encore," the new venue will offer an intimate patron experience, providing flexible space ideal for screening first run films, hosting educational events, lectures and other events better suited to a small space. The second screen is an essential element of The State Theatre's Strategic Plan that calls on it to be a focal point of a revitalized downtown Modesto.

▶ WHAT'S NEEDED:
$250,000 for space acquisition, renovation and technology
